

THE SYSTEMIC UPGRADE FOR YOUR ENGINEERING PROJECT!

SYSTEMIC Project Manager (m/f/d) Focus: Technology and Projects

Tasks:

- Control and leadership of development teams in technical projects
- Technical evaluation of tools, machines and production processes
- Tool and resource management in the industrialization phase
- Interface management for change and optimization processes
- Quality management (automotive) for technical development projects
- Analyzing and solving component, tool and process problems
- Task force management and management communication in case of escalation
- Planning and control of relocation processes

Qualifications:

- technologically ahead
 - you have a technical education or study
- reliably evaluating
 - your requirement is to understand a project technically
- project-specific experience
 - you move confidently in industrial development projects
- methodically effective
 - you proceed in a structured, pragmatic and solution-oriented way
- empathically connecting
 - you create a positive climate and are open-minded
- communicative clear
 - you represent your point of view and have an opinion
- intensively networked
 - you know and consistently use the potential of networks
- at home worldwide
 - you like to operate globally and speak business fluent English

We offer:

- independent and future-oriented work
- family-friendly company
- attractive, performance-oriented compensation
- development of professional and personal skills
- flexible working hours
- mobile working
- #workingwithfriends

Interested?

Schnitzer Group GmbH & Co. KG

Ms. Ulrike Schnitzer | ulrike.schnitzer@schnitzer-group.com | Phone +49 7522 707969-22

Paradiesstraße 4 | 88239 Wangen im Allgäu | www.schnitzer-group.com